

Privacy Policy

Restore and Reform Pilates (“we”, “our”, “us”) is committed to protecting the privacy of all clients and visitors. This Privacy Policy outlines how we collect, use, disclose, and store your personal information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 and the Australian Privacy Principles.

1. Collection of Personal Information

We may collect personal information including your name, contact details, emergency contact, and relevant health information required to provide safe and appropriate fitness services. Information may be collected directly from you through our website, forms, or in-person at the studio.

2. Use of Personal Information

- We use your personal information to:
- Manage class bookings and memberships
- Communicate with you about services, offers, and updates
- Ensure classes and programs are delivered safely and effectively
- Comply with legal and regulatory requirements

3. Disclosure of Personal Information

We do not sell, rent, or trade your personal information. Your information may only be disclosed to third parties where required by law or with your express consent.

4. Data Security and Retention

We take reasonable steps to protect your personal information from misuse, loss, or unauthorized access. Your information is securely stored and retained only for as long as necessary to provide our services or as required by law.

5. Access and Correction

You may request access to or correction of your personal information at any time by contacting us at sales@restoreandreformpilates.au. We will respond to all requests in accordance with applicable privacy laws.

6. Updates to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. The most current version will always be available on our website.
